

LO Kar Yin

Email: bkyrec@gmail.com

Professional engineer and professional quantity surveyor with extensive years of experience in development, building and civil construction, addition and alteration, major repairs, maintenance and operations and alternative dispute resolution for public and private works projects.

KY is a multi-disciplinary professional working in architecture, engineering, construction and operations industry. She has educational qualifications and solid experience in architecture, building information modelling, information technology, business administration, engineering, finance, health and social care, law, management, quantity surveying, costing, law and alternative dispute resolution with different stakeholders including subcontractors, contractors, consultants and developers.