

With nearly 30 years' experience, Phillip practices as a barrister, arbitrator, mediator and adjudicator, with particular expertise in the construction and engineering industry, acting regularly for owners, developers, contractors and industry professionals in court, arbitral, adjudicatory and expert determination procedures. He has been involved, as adjudicator or counsel, in over 40 adjudication proceedings under Security of Payment legislation. Phillip is also an accredited mediator of the Victorian Bar, a Fellow of numerous international arbitration institutes including those in Hong Kong, Singapore and Malaysia and the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators, as well as a Fellow of the Hong Kong Institute of Adjudicators. He is a Panel or List member of many arbitration institutes globally. Phillip established and runs www.arbitration.site and www.constructionlaw.site, online resources providing construction and international arbitration legal updates from around the world. He is ranked in all the major directories, including the construction-specific Doyles (Leading Barrister, Construction, 2020) and a Leading Junior in The Legal 500 2021, who quotes Phillip as having “deep knowledge of arbitration law in Hong Kong and globally. Sharp intellect and tenacious”.
